Molte grazie e buona salute! This was the toast to our hosts at our Summer Social Evening. As a change to our regular monthly meetings with speakers, in the summer(!) we all get together with guests so that we can meet socially and enjoy wonderful food and drink. On this occasion Micheline and Stephen were kind enough to host the evening – we were hoping to be in their garden but, unfortunately, the weather was not kind to us. The entertainment committee planned an Italian theme and provided excellent food washed down with Prosecco and red wine. Several other members provided an incredible offering of various desserts (it was the WI).

After a speech of thanks by our President, Sue Dickenson, she raised a toast to our hosts and thank you gifts were presented to both the hosts and members of the entertainment committee for all their hard work. A thoroughly enjoyable evening was had by all and the committee have been left wondering how they can top

Why are we obliged to use One Time Passcodes more often?

The answer is simple, but not necessarily helpful.

The one-time passcode (OTP) security system has been introduced to protect you and your money and we should all be grateful it has been introduced. It helps stop thieves from accessing your financial accounts.

OK! So why does an OTP appear every time I want to logon to my account?

The answer is equally simple. Your computer is blocking your IP address or a cookie the Bank uses to identify your computer on their server.

Cookies are a pain, but sometimes necessary and you would not be able to access the Internet without an IP address.

However, the use of Ad blockers and tracker blockers restrict others from dumping Ads and Cookies on your system, a VPN will block the IP address to all servers on the internet except for the primary server in the chain of servers used by the VPN.

Confused? You may well be! And you would be excused if you are!

We've all become tired and irritated with the plethora of junk ads on our screens, but sadly not all systems are capable of discretionary filtering. For some systems it's all or nothing.

Therefore, as the Banks server doesn't recognise a new, different or no IP address, it needs to check you are who you say you are and you have authority to access your money with a secondary security check.

The lesson here is that to protect yourself from thieves, you have to accept the inconvenience of an effective, sometimes restrictive, system. [amen]

The NHS now wish they had improved security systems instead of the old outdated System. Recent hackers using "go" language to code a ransomware hack, which will cost all British citizens millions of pounds, we are told, 300 million files have been stolen, I believe it is far more. The successful hack has copied all your personal and history details and published some on the Internet. So don't be surprised to receive calls, text and emails from spurious individuals and you can blame it on the NHS IT departments lack of sufficient internet security!

don't just heal with our hands. We heal with our hearts also'. There is a significant lesson to be learnt in this approach in all walks of life.
Service to others involves self-emptying, self-giving, renunciation. We are on holy ground when we serve others with all our heart. And this is what we should celebrate as we remember the life of Florence Nightingale.
Everyone is our neighbour and we are here to serve.
God bless you all.
Revd David Saunders.

Lunch Club

Lunch Club has been meeting monthly at Week St Mary church for a year now and has proven to be a popular social meet up event for over 20 people each month.

Thank you to those who help with cooking and serving lunch each time and to the people who come to enjoy good food and good company.

We will not meet in August and September's meeting will be a week early so that it doesn't come in Revel Week.
We'll see everyone again on 11th September.

There will be no Lego Cafe at Week St Mary church in August, the next meeting will be 14th September.

We start cooking at 9.30 and literally tons of Lego is available from then until 12.

All are welcome, young or old. An excellent way to entertain on a Saturday morning and a chance to meet up over a coffee or breakfast even if you're not into Lego.

Ruminations from the Rectory

Bible Passage: Luke 10:25-37 – Parable of the Good Samaritan.

On the 13th of August we remember the life of Florence Nightingale, a nurse and social reformer and a Samaritan whose purpose was to improve the conditions for the wounded during the Crimean War. She dedicated her life to reforming nursing care and selflessly put her heart and soul into helping those who had been wounded.

We all like to think of ourselves as a good neighbour and Samaritan. How could we be anything else as a follower of Christ? But if we are honest with ourselves, can we honestly say we would do anything to help our neighbours? In some cases, do we even know their full names? Or even remember the last time we might have selflessly helped them out of the goodness of our hearts?

Jesus' Parable of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:25-37) draws attention not only to the actions of the characters in this story, but what's in their hearts. We can agree with Jesus' teachings. We can believe in the greatest Commandment – Love the Lord with all your heart, soul, mind and strength - and the Golden Rule – Love your neighbour as yourself. However, Jesus doesn't simply want us to agree with him, he wants us to live like him with our hearts, souls and minds. The Good Samaritan didn't just love the people he was close to – his own kind - he saw the beaten man, had pity in his heart, and then acted, unlike the priest and the Levite who simply passed by. Likewise, Florence Nightingale didn't just carry out her nursing duties, she chose to put her heart into helping the wounded, believing that she was serving God. This is what service ultimately means. It goes beyond mere duty, for it answers the question 'what would I not do to care for the people I am given to serve and show compassion towards?' Nurses often say so beautifully: 'we

Fund raising for St. Mary's Church, Week St. Mary

Adventure Church

Adventure church has had a busy and adventurous summer this year during which the weather mostly co-operated on evenings for a change.

We have visited the Wyldes, been to the beach, been on a treasure hunt, rowed on the canal and built our own giant slip and slide. We are finishing with a disco just before school breaks up and then will not meet again until 10th September.

Thank you to all the helpers every week, we look forward to more adventures in the autumn term.

Frangipan Flan Recipe

Flan Pastry Oven temp 200° Fan 180° Gas 6
4 oz Plain Flour
3 oz Butter or Margarine
1 tsp caster Sugar
1 egg

Rub the fat into the flour until it resembles fine crumbs. Mix in the sugar, add the egg, stirring until the ingredients begin to stick together, then collect the mixture together with one hand and kneed lightly to give a firm smooth dough.

Frangipan filling

2 tbsps raspberry jam 2 oz butter or marg
2 oz caster sugar 1 egg beaten
A few drops of almond essence
2 oz ground almonds
½ oz flour, (2 oz icing sugar for topping)

Roll out pastry and line a 7 inch flan ring, taking the pastry up the sides of the flancase. Spread the bottom of the pastry with the jam. Cream together the fat and sugar until pale and fluffy and add the beaten egg and essence a little at a time, beating well after each addition. Fold in the ground almonds and flour with a metal spoon. Put the filling into the jam lined pastry case. Roll out the trimmings of the pasty and cut ¼in (0.6cms) wide strips to form a lattice on top of the filling. Bake flan in the centre of the oven for 10 - 15 mins, then reduce the oven temp to 180° Fan 160° Gas 4 for a further 15 - 20 mins, until the filling is firm; remove from the oven. Mix the flour and icing sugar with a little water to produce a thin icing which can be brushed on top of the flan when cooked.

3 Ashbury Grove
 An update was given to councillors. Cllr Johns said the residents are keeping the grass cut and it is hoped a BBQ can be held in the summer. There are plans for a picnic table. They would like to tidy the bushes in front of the thatched cottage, but they are waiting on Cornwall Council to see what they are going to do.
4 Events in the playing field
 Cllr Slade reported that she and Cllr Johns attended a Revel Day meeting. Cllr Bolt kindly agreed to do the beacon. One resident had enquired if he would be able to hold an event in the playing field, but the council had not heard any more. This will be deferred to a future meeting.

REVEL

Plans are well under way for a Bumper Revel this year! For the last few years we have had the help and support of Alan Colwill, his business and his friends plus that of several other local businesses such as Dan Hirst, Steve Naish Bouncy Castles and Twisted Splinter woodwork, as well as numerous villagers and their families and all of these and more have offered to help again. We are hoping to welcome Boscastle Border Morris once again to lead the procession and dance in the afternoon. This year's Harvest Queen's Party will be Charlotte Sharland, Delphie Ellis, Rowan Spettigue & Lucas Willoughby.

Due to the peculiar way that the Revel date is calculated, this year it falls on the third week in September on Saturday 21st, so we are hoping against hope for an Indian Summer!

Unfortunately, we will not be having a Dog Show this year but instead will introduce The Best Dressed Henry Contest which will encourage everyone to dress up their vacuum cleaner and parade it for judging in the arena. Look out for further details in next month's magazine!

There will be the usual wide variety of stalls plus a few new ones and once again this year there will be an all afternoon tea in the marquee and a licensed bar for afternoon and evening. Evening entertainment is live music from Devil Rain, games and a Barbecue.

In the week before, the scene will be set with a variety of Revel Week activities in September as listed below:

Sunday	15 th	Car Treasure Hunt details of which will appear in September's magazine.
Wednesday	18 th	Revel Bake Off and Fruit and veg show
