Issue No 462

Jeanne Powell

Jeanne Powell would like to thank everyone who came to her 100th birthday on 17th May. She had a great time at a surprise family party the day before and was pleased to welcome lots of village friends on the birthday afternoon.

Thank you again for cards, gifts and good wishes.

In Memory Of John Sandercock of Week St Mary

John - often known as Stan - sadly passed away on 22 April 2026. His Commemoration Service was held on the 18th May. SO many of his friends, associates and WSM villagers who had known John for many years, if not his whole life, came to wish him farewell.

I would like to thank everyone for making the day as uplifting as it could be. Your presence was of great comfort to me and the girls. I can only apologise if I didn't have a chance to speak with everyone as your numbers were quite overwhelming - in a good way!

Thank you for the numerous cards, good wishes and offers of support that we have received - as well as the lovely flowers which helped brighten up our sadness - we are truly grateful.

Special thanks to Jon, Keith, Lee and Richard for their special part on the day. Thanks to Marianne and Alan at Stumble for their hospitality. A big shout out to those Launceston Motor Club members who gave John one last race on his way. Thanks to Marion for delivering John's Eulogy so brilliantly.

Last, but not least, thanks to Denise who made the pre-organisation of everything as painless as could be possible and for the special support and actions that she and Daryl delivered on the day.

Thank you one and all.

Can AI be accurate and trustworthy?

Neural networks have made catfishing, where scammers create a fake identity or impersonate a real person. much easier. Modern generative neural networks can imitate a person's appearance, voice, or writing style with a high degree of accuracy. All a scammer needs do is gather publicly available information about a person and feed that data to an AI model, photos, videos, public posts and comments, plus information about relatives, hobbies, anything and everything can be used.

Fake singers have been created and are now topping the best downloaded online singles charts and full-length feature films are next. Our government believes the UK should be in the forefront of AI data development. Sorry to have to inform them, we have missed the boat on that one, (not enough electricity, don't you know!)

I have written several articles on how AI makes mistakes, now the British Medical Journal has declared that several AI models are giving incorrect medical advice! Using AI as a search engine is a huge mistake, it collects data from existing search engines and other sources including both good elements and bad, and accurate data and false data. Only a true professional will give you the best medical advice (but they too can make mistakes).

Now don't get me wrong I think AI is a very exciting tool, only that it's merely a stepping stone to greater things already in the pipeline and as the younger generation have found a method of generating an income from uploading videos, 1 million likes can earn between £3,000 and £4,000, a totally different culture is developing before us.

Smart kids already know the tricks on how to get around internet age restrictions and when geriatric minded politicians suggest legislation should be implemented at some time in the future, the younger generation are already there and half way back again!

There have been millions of words printed on the dangers of internet scams affecting older people. Believe me when I say you have seen nothing yet. ID cards will produce a host of "doppelgangers" and no matter if you subscribe to ID's or not, AI will easily produce them, completely without your knowledge, a perfect medium for a thief to steal one's identity. Don't believe me? Wait and see! (But by then it will be too late) ...and thieves are getting smarter, or so you would think! after studying the floor plans of houses for sale on Rightmove, two thieves ransacked one house while homeowners were still in residence! Stupidly they didn't recce the surveillance cameras which monitored their every move, and were caught and prosecuted!

On a brighter note the recent Moon shot safely brought the Astronauts back to earth. With a planned manned moon station in 2028, supported by mechanical robotics to work outside the base station in a zero-oxygen environment will be putting AI "Robonauts" to good and practical use.

Whitstone Waddlers

We are a friendly playgroup for children aged 0-4 and their parents or carers. The group meets every Friday during term time from 9am to 11am at Whitstone Primary School, based in the pre-school room.

Each session includes healthy snacks, fun crafts and, weather permitting, outdoor play and exploration. It's a wonderful opportunity for little ones to socialise, play and become familiar with the school environment before starting pre-school or primary school. Families also have the chance to get to know the teachers and meet other local parents and carers.

We are always pleased to welcome new families, so why not come along and join us? For more information, follow the Whitstone Waddlers Facebook page.

Ruminations from the Rectory

The power of small gestures

Derik Fay tells the story of when he was seven years old. He says, I used to carry a Dukes of Hazzard lunchbox to school. I did this to hide the fact that I actually didn't have anything for lunch, just like I hid the bruises underneath my clothing. One day, I asked the teacher to get a drink of water, I needed the drink to quench the hunger in my stomach. When I got back to the classroom, to my surprise, inside my empty lunchbox was an apple and an Oreo cookie. In that moment, when the tears fell from my eyes, I realised the power of small gestures, far more than my lunch box had been filled in that moment.

He says that almost 40 years later, he still remembers it like it was yesterday. He goes on to say, I implore all of you to try to find opportunities in life to fill someone else's lunch box. You will never understand how your small gestures may impact someone else, or when you yourself may need someone else to fill your lunch box.

Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, whatever you did for one of the least of these brothers and sisters of mine, you did for me."

Matthew's gospel, chapter 25 verse 40

Week St Mary Bonaventures WI

In May, we were delighted to welcome Liz Hargreaves and her guide dog, Ferdy, to our meeting. Liz shared fascinating stories from her many years working with Guide Dogs and explained the structured training process involved in preparing a guide dog for its future owner. Liz is a member of Carnbrae WI, and Ferdy is also an honorary WI member.

Liz explained that she lost her sight at the age of seven due to a brain tumour and had to learn how to cope with life as a blind child. She attended a local specialist primary school before moving away to a senior boarding school, which she found both challenging and lonely.

After leaving school, Liz trained as a telephonist and decided to apply for a guide dog. Her first dog, Cleo, gave her an enormous sense of freedom, and over the past 56 years she has had eight guide dogs, with Ferdy being her current companion.

Liz described the thorough training process involved in preparing guide dogs. Suitable puppies are identified at the breeding centre before being placed with puppy-raising families for around 12–15 months, where they begin socialisation training and learn to walk on a lead. If successful, the dogs then return to the training centre to begin harness training, with the harness acting as the vital link between dog and handler.

As well as learning social skills around people and other dogs, the training also teaches the dogs to stop at steps, navigate different environments, and become accustomed to a variety of noises and distractions.

New owners work closely with their guide dog at the training centre for five to seven weeks before they are ready to work independently together. Building a strong partnership requires plenty of communication, encouragement, concentration, and praise.

Liz explained that around 15–20% of dogs are withdrawn from the programme if they prove unsuitable for guide dog work, although many go on to become much-loved family pets or companion dogs for children.

Guide dogs usually retire at around ten years of age, depending on their health, and often remain with their owners as family pets.

Liz also spoke about the current long waiting list for guide dogs, explaining that the Covid lockdowns severely affected puppy socialisation, and that the organisation is only now beginning to recover from those challenges.

Liz and her partner, Noel, regularly give talks and help raise funds for Guide Dogs through the sale of merchandise.

Liz said that a guide dog is “worth their weight in gold” and explained how her dogs have enabled her to live independently, enjoy a successful career, and raise two children.

This was an open meeting, and we were delighted to welcome non-WI guests to enjoy the evening’s talk. Our next meeting will be held on 11th June 2026 at 7.30pm in the Methodist Chapel School Room, when Deirdre Conmiss from Holsworthy Beekeepers will share with us the wonder of bees. Female guests are very welcome to join us for a fee of £5.

COMMUNITY MONEY ADVICE LAUNCESTON

During 2025 the Cornwall PEOPLE IN MIND outreach project has enabled Community Money Advice Launceston to visit and meet local residents of some of the most rural villages and hamlets within North East Cornwall, including Week St Mary. This has enabled our team to become engaged with some of the least advantaged locally. The elderly especially, including those who may be experiencing difficulties within their finances, particularly with their utilities, local taxes and benefit structure.

The FREE services which CMAL offer in these areas has been particularly welcome among those who find it so difficult to keep abreast with the newer methods in technology. With nationally 1 in 7 people being unable to communicate effectively with the internet/email/online banking system, it is little wonder why our team is fully stretched to help. We have a policy of helping every genuine request for help. One of the main lessons we have learnt from our visits is that many local people were unaware of us, or the areas in which we can help, and especially the direct contact we have with some agencies, like SouthWest Water or Cornwall Council about council tax problem

The major areas of immediate concern to many of our clients currently are:

PENSION CREDIT WINTER FUEL PAYMENT BLUE BADGES PIP renewal

If you are worried or feel the forms to fill are too complicated. DO NOT WAIT.

If you feel you would like to contact outside our visit dates, then make an initial contact by phone on 01566 777407 or 07762 092 830 and leave a message on our answerphone if our office is closed. For those who prefer email then our contact is office@launcestonmoney.co.uk . In the last year more than 800 residents in North Cornwall have had our help. Many in Week St Mary and the

Your Parish Church NEEDS YOU

For nearly four centuries, our Grade I listed church tower has stood as a proud landmark, rising 100 feet above the landscape and watching over our community since 1643. Its history is woven into the story of this place — a symbol of heritage, faith, and continuity.

Today, however, this remarkable structure has been placed on the Heritage at Risk Register. Time and weather have taken their toll, and without urgent action the tower's future is uncertain.

A full renovation is now required to preserve and protect it for future generations. The work is extensive, with an estimated cost of £400,000.

We are asking for your help. Every donation, large or small, will bring us closer to restoring this historic tower and ensuring it continues to stand tall for centuries to come.

If this landmark means something to you, please consider supporting the restoration fund. Together, we can safeguard this piece of history and keep our tower standing proudly over the community once again.
